

THE TALE OF TWO DEDUCTIONS IN FICHTE'S SITTENLEHRE

A MASTERCLASS
BY PLATO TSE

FEBRUARY 8, 9, 10
2-6PM (AEDT)
UNSW

UNSW Sydney, Matthews Building,
Room 105 and online

Reading material and Zoom link:
h.ikaheimo@unsw.edu.au

The general aim of this three-day intensive class is to expose and discuss the systematic significance of the notion of freedom in the context of Fichte's ethics by engaging with his two 'deductions' dedicated to proving the principle of morality and establishing its applicability in the sensible world.